COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The vote for the November 3rd general election was quite large and the percentage was quite large. The total number of voters on the voting list which includes Bethel, and Albany and Mason, was 1437. The 1112 votes cast makes about an 80% total and it could run a little higher because there might be a few names on the voting list that should not be there.

Tax payments have continued a little better than I had expected. Payments for the last week of October were almost $19,000.00 and about $13,000.00 for the first week in November. The total of 1964 tax collections is about $62,000.00 which is about 25% of the total commitment.

Preparations for winter are moving along quite well. The snow fence is nearly all up and work has begun on snow plow frames. After the plow frames are put on the trucks, there are several other small jobs to do before snow falls. The sewer on Broad Street has bothered several more times this past week with partial plugs.

Some of the trouble in the sewers is caused by roots but a lot is caused by careless use of the system. The sewer system is designed for the waste water of the homes connected to the sewer. It is not surprising that sewer plugs occur when such items as plastic laundry bags, mop heads, plastic toys and even a tennis ball are allowed to enter the system. These items must enter the system by cellar drains. These drains should have a heavy screening over them so large objects can not enter the sewer system. An ordinance is being prepared for the next town meeting to regulate the sewer privileges and abuses.

The next meeting of the Bethel Planning Board will be Friday, Nov. 13, at 7:30 p. m. in the Selectmen's Office. The public is invited.

BETHEL PLAYERS PLAN COSTUME DANCE

Something new, is in view, at the onset of the holiday season: Bethel Players' "Storybook Ball Cabaret"! Mrs. Warren Hastings, chairman, announces that this costumed event will take place on Saturday, November 28, from 8:00 p. m. to 12:00 midnight at the William Bingham Gymnasium. Lloyd Ratnell and his orchestra have been engaged to provide music for the evening.

Costumes may be selected to follow any story or play characters. Three cash prizes will be awarded for costumes in the best categories. There will also be a door prize.

Tickets will go on sale Thursday, Nov. 12, at the Specialty Shop, at a special advance price. A limited number will be available, so make your plans early to attend and join the fun.

Committees announced to date include: Entertainment and program: Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Jenkins, Mrs. Albert Bean and Mrs. Charles Farrar; Refreshments: Mrs. Martha Sweet and Mrs. Harold Bartlett; Prizes: Mrs. Addison C. Saunders and Mrs. John Trivard; Tickets: Miss Rose Rozek and Mrs. James Hudson; Decorating: Mrs. Rodney Brooks, Mrs. Alfred Charest and Mrs. Colwyn Haskell; Business Manager: Mrs. Richard Bryant; and Publicity: Mrs. Robert Tift.

The next dance committee meeting will be held on Monday, November 16, at 8:00 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Warren Hastings.

Ronald E. York, fireman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. York, was advanced to his present rate, Oct. 16, while serving aboard the destroyer tender U. S. S. Shenandoah, operating with the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.

C. Smith, Bethel; L. F. Pike, Norway; Mrs. A. Herbert Stearns, Sr., Canton; and Mrs. Lester Twitchell, South Paris.

David A. Jean of East Otisfield, a veteran hunter claims to have seen a lion while dumping trash at the Oxford village town dump recently. The story has circulated and reportedly Deputies from the Oxford County Sheriff's Department have been checking it. Big tracks were seen near the dump believed to be those of a large dog or possibly a mountain lion.

The Oxford County 4-H Club Leaders Association is planning a public harvest supper for November 19 at the Union Hall, Canton Point for the benefit of Arthur Blake of Mexico, who is a patient at the Maine Medical Center. Portland Mr. Blake is a 4-H project leader. Mr. and Mrs. Blake are leaders of the Mexico 4-H Club.

HEALTH COUNCIL TO SPONSOR DIABETES DETECTION PROGRAM

In observance of Diabetes Detection Week, the Bethel Health and Service Council is making arrangements to allow every Bethel school child an opportunity to participate in a screening program to detect any possible cases of the disease among these boys and girls.

The Council earnestly appeals to parents and students to cooperate in this program just as they do in other "screening" tests offered through the schools to detect eye and ear problems.

The procedure, as announced by Mrs. Dexter Stovell, will probably start in Crescent Park School, Monday afternoon approximately 150 students will be given labelled specimen bottles wrapped in a paper bag to take home. The package will contain directions, including the following: Feed your child his usual complete supper. At 1½ to 2 hours after the meal, collect a specimen of urine in the specimen jar; wrap it in the paper bag, and return it to school the following morning.

Mothers will participate in the process of preparing the packages, collecting and recording results daily until all of the children have been tested, with probably three classrooms of children being tested each day.

ROBERT A. LAWRENCE

An official from the Maine Department of Economic Development spoke to the Bethel Parent-Teachers Association Tuesday night and emphasized the need for technical training in the state. Robert A. Lawrence, Wood Products Consultant in the DED's Industrial Development Division, said that not enough semi-skilled and unskilled laborers are being trained for industry. He felt that on-the-job training and institutional training would be the answer to Maine's economic problem. A question and answer period followed.

It was announced that 385 tickets were sold during the recent membership drive, 229 to active members.

Many parents were interested in learning that the school board voted at their last meeting to give up the magazine drive in the future.

A large number of persons were in attendance.

Mrs. Mary Willard was home Sunday. She will be in Scarborough for the next eight weeks, practice teaching in the Dunstan School.

Article 2. To see if the town will vote to build a new six classroom elementary building to replace the Elm Street School, or to see what action the town will take.

Article 3. To see if the town will vote to set up a building committee, composed of the Selectmen, and the School Committee, for the purpose of obtaining plans, specifications, and bids on a new elementary school building. A report of these to be presented at the next regular town meeting for action.

Article 4. To see if the town will vote to authorize the Selectmen to use funds in the present Grammar School Building Fund for the use of the building committee in obtaining the plans, specifications, and bids on a new elementary building.

Article 5. To see if the town will appoint a committee of 5 citizens who will work in co-operation with the Superintendent of Schools to continue to investigate Andover school needs. Said committee to have authority to study with committees of neighboring towns to gather pertinent data relative to education in general. Said committee to make a report of their findings to the citizens at the next regular town meeting or at a special town meeting called for that purpose.

HOW TO CUT HEAT COSTS

6 tips that can help you get more warmth from your heating oil dollars

1. Keep your oil burner clean. Today's Shell Heating Oil contains special additives FOA-EX. It helps keep critical burner passages free from clogging-to assure better firing.

2. Guard against leak rust. Shell Reolator anti-rust treatment helps protect your storage tank up to three full years, at no extra cost.

3. Check your thermostat location. If your thermostat is in a stairwell, on an outside wall or near an outside entrance-it may cause your burner to operate more often than necessary.

4. Shut off radiators or registers in rooms that aren't in regular use.

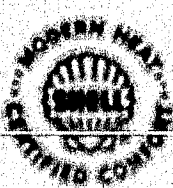

5. When drapes are not in use, make sure dampers are securely shut.

6. Keep attic ventilators closed during the heating season. Call us today for the finest in heating oil service.

INSURANCE AGENCY MARKS CENTURY OF BUSINESS

A century of steady growth carried on by three generations in the business of general insurance is the enviable history of the W. J. Wheeler & Co., Inc., since it was founded in the shire town of Oxford County, South Paris, in 1864, by Henry Howard.

The advent of the Wheeler family in this now century-old insurance firm came shortly after the completion of the Civil War. Soon after he had completed his service through the war-torn years, William J. Wheeler returned to his native town, Dixfield. In a short time he moved to South Paris so that he could work for Mr. Howard as an office clerk and salesman of fire and life insurance. A year later the founder of the small agency passed on and Mr. Wheeler took over the ownership and management of the firm.

He employed Albert Swift as office clerk so that he could devote all his time driving over the countryside and signing on more patrons. The first of the four offices, all located in Market Square, was on the second floor of the Williams' Harness Shop, now the Starbird building. An adjoining office was occupied by Judge George A. Wilson.

For a number of years William J. Wheeler was a familiar figure in Oxford County towns as he drove his horse and wagon from one town to another. Because of these journeys over the narrow, sandy, winding roads of that day, Mr. Wheeler stabled two horses at Bethel and two more at Dixfield. He made the trip from South Paris to Bethel on the Grand Trunk railroad which had only been in existence for less than a score of years.

From Bethel Mr. Wheeler drove his horse to Hanover, Rumford Point, Rumford Center, and Andover, where he usually remained overnight. It was this early endeavor of the first of the three generations of the Wheeler family on the insurance business that made the firm one of the largest of its kind in Oxford County.

This same energetic William J. Wheeler decided after a few years to add a new department to the firm. He took on the dealership of organs and pianos, a business that was continued for more than a half century.

With the addition of this new department the Wheeler firm needed more display room and so the first move to new quarters was made. The new office was located on the second floor of the True Block, now owned by Gordon M. Stewart. In 1893 Miss Margaret Baker of Norway was employed as an office clerk. She remained with the insurance firm for 30 years, retiring in 1923.

The third site in Market Square was in the Frathingham Block at the corner of Main and Pine Streets. Mr. Wheeler was appointed Post Master of South Paris and established the Post Office in this building next to his insurance office. He was postmaster for four years.

At the conclusion of his term Mr. Wheeler moved his office to a small building at the corner of Maple Street and Market Square. At the beginning of 1898 this building was moved to Deering Street, so that the construction of a modern brick business block could get underway. The Wheeler firm moved to Deering Street and carried on its business in the small building until the Billings Block was completed and the move to the present quarters was made in late 1898. This new location made possible the expansion of a display area for the pianos and organs, as well as giving the insurance department a more spacious area.

Stanley M. Wheeler, son of William, began working in the office in 1902. He was educated in Paris high school, Hebron Academy and the University of Maine. He continued to do office work and acted as a salesman during all his school vacations. He joined the firm in 1910 after graduating from the U. of M.

The firm was incorporated in 1916. William was elected president and Stanley became a director. In 1919 Robert W. Wheeler, another son of William, became associated with the company, and was active as a salesman. William died in 1920 and Stanley was elected president. Robert was named treasurer. For the next 35 years the Wheeler brothers carried on the business. Because of the steady expansion of the general insurance business they decided to discontinue the organ, piano and radio department.

The third generation of the family became associated with the firm in 1930 when Howard W. Cole of Skowhegan joined with his two uncles in conducting the business. Howard, the son of Roy E. and Susan Wheeler Cole of Needham, Mass., graduated from Hebron Academy in 1934, and Colgate University in 1938. He was employed by the State of Maine for several years until he purchased the Curtis Oil Company in Skowhegan. He married Miss Virginia Curtis of that town. The Coles are the parents of a son and daughter which assures the fourth generation of the Wheeler family to carry on the insurance business.

The Cole family moved to Bethel when Howard became a member of the Wheeler firm. He commutes daily to his office in South Paris. When Robert Wheeler died in 1955 Howard was named treasurer. He was elected president of the Independent Insurance Agency Association of Maine for the term of 1962-63. His grandfather, William Wheeler, also served as president of the state-wide association in 1913-14.

Mr. Cole is presently president of the Stephens Memorial Hospital Board of Trustees. Two members of the Wheeler insurance firm served the town of Paris as its town clerk. William was elected to the office and served until his death in 1920. The townspeople named Robert to succeed his father as town clerk and the office was established in the insurance firm's office for over half a century.

Stanley Wheeler points out that his father wasn't the only member of the family to drive a horse and buggy over the countryside to visit and solicit business. After joining the company Stanley made many long trips overland via horse and buggy. He recalls that it was only a year after he started working with the firm that he became the first owner of the new contraption—a Stanley steamer—in the town of Paris.

"It was in 1903," he recalled, "that I bought the steamer and started maneuvering it over the narrow roads of that time. I remember well that the biggest task was to keep water in the boiler to make the steam that powered the small vehicle. I've stopped many a time beside a watering tub or a small brook out in the country, hooked a hose onto the water tank and put it into the brook and started the pump on the steamer to fill the tank. And I have had to stop at many a farm house to get water for the tank so that I could have power to keep going."

Stanley recalled that the Stanley steamer was operated only a few months of the year. As soon as winter came the steamer went into storage. "I replaced the steamer in 1909 with a Ford sedan with cloth

In those days the man pumped the gas out of a steel drum, into a metal measure, put a funnel into the tank opening and strained the gas through a chamois.

Stanley was active in town, county and state politics. Always a Republican, he served as a town official, served two terms as a State Representative, and two terms as a State Senator. He was also elected for a six year term as County Commissioner.

He was a director of the Oxford County Agricultural Society for 30 years and was elected president and treasurer of the fair group for 12 years. He was also elected president of the Maine State Fair Association for one year.

He married Mary Walker Abbott in 1913. The couple observed their Golden Wedding anniversary a year ago.

MISS ALICE M. BARKER

Miss Alice M. Barker of West Bethel passed away Friday evening, Nov. 6, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Snyder, where she had boarded for the past two months.

She was born in Bethel, Feb. 25, 1874, and was the daughter of John and Jane Rose Barker. She attended local schools and could remember starting school in the old Barker school house which stood to stand near her home on the "old road" leading from Bethel to West Bethel. Miss Barker attended Gould, and also attended Hebron Academy, where she majored in foreign languages including Latin, French, German and Greek both before and after her graduation from Hebron Academy. She later returned home to assist her father and mother who were in failing health. After their death she always made her home at the Barker home, living there alone as long as she was able after her brother, Clarence, died in 1938.

Another brother, Arthur, and a sister, Mary Ellen, who married Harry Head, died quite young. Miss Barker is survived only by a niece, Mrs. Hadley Rich, Washington, D. C., and a nephew, Paul B. Head, of West Bethel, a grandniece and three grandnephews.

Aunt Alice, as she was known to her many friends, and her family, possessed a very keen and alert mind. Even at the advanced age of 90 years, she always read her Bible, daily papers, magazines, and often a good book now and then. She followed with interest the political news, and found pleasure in reading our local paper each week. Even until the last she could see without glasses.

With the exception of having

MRS. SARAH ROBERTSON

Mrs. Sarah (Helen) Robertson died Monday evening at the Stephens Memorial Hospital in Norway, where she had been a patient for two days.

Born at Woburn, Mass., March 13, 1888, she was the daughter of Thomas and Mary Flaherty Kelly. She lived in Bethel for 48 years and was a member of Purity Chapter, 102, OES.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Mary Kenakin, Bethel; Mrs. Helen Cummings, Topsham; four sons, Winfield, Henry and William, all of Bethel; Fenton, Richmond, Calif.; six brothers, Joseph, Mark and Chester, all of Woburn, Mass.; Henry, Jack and William, all of Winchester, Mass.; 16 grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon (Nov. 12) from the Greenleaf funeral home, Rev. Clifford Laws officiating. Burial at Riverside Cemetery.

broken both hips through falling. Aunt Alice had always enjoyed the best of health, and often said she could not remember ever having a sick day in her 90 years. She loved her home on the Barker farm and was very proud of belonging to one of the oldest families in Bethel and being a direct descendant of Jonathan Clark whom the Indians carried away in early days.

Aunt Alice loved music and flowers, birds, and nature in all its moods. She possessed a delicate and very refined nature and appreciated the better things of life.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from the Greenleaf funeral home with Mrs. Beatrice Burris officiating. Beautiful floral tributes were silent tokens of love and esteem of relatives and friends for Aunt Alice whom we shall always remember. Burial was at Pine Grove Cemetery, West Bethel.

The bearers were Edmund Smith, Wilbur Davis, Fred Grover, and Ronald Snyder. Attending from out of town were a grandniece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Butler, and also Miss Gloria Smith, of Bangor; also friends from Gil-est and surrounding towns.

The Home Beyond

There is a home which lies beyond—
And just its golden door
Awaits the one who's now away.
Not lost — just gone before.
And in that home that lies beyond
The Master will prepare
A place for us.
And when life calls
We'll meet our loved one there.

MORE THAN 100 PRESENT AT METHODIST DINNER

The congregational dinner for the Methodist Church members and constituents was held Thursday evening, Nov. 5th, with more than 100 present.

Master of ceremonies, Donald Brown, introduced Rev. Donald Hess who read the Scripture, followed by the speakers: Stanley Brown, Program Chairman; Albert Buck, Resources Chairman; Richard Stevens, Stewardship and Finance Chairman; and Richard Davis, General Chairman. Each one outlined his particular phase in the Every Member Visitation Program with facts and figures compiled to date.

The film, "The Will of Augusta Nash" proved to be a thought provoking story, well written and directed.

The M. C.'s comment, (which also merits thought) prior to the Benediction was, "They are not asking us to give until it hurts, but to give until it feels good!"

Committees for the dinner were: Planning and soliciting: Mrs. Abbie Brown, Chairman; Mrs. Sadie Brooks, Mrs. Mabel Greenleaf, Mrs. Gladys Cross, Mrs. Sylvia Luxton. Dining room: Mrs. Mary Kendall.
